SALT RIVER LEAGUE TO BE REORGANIZED

Phoenix, Ariz. Oct. 4 .- Arrangements are being made for a complete reorganization of the Salt River Valley Baseball league. Tempe failed to sup-port her team and is now out of the league, but there is a plan on foot to reorganize the team and have it play under the Glendale flag. Glendale, 9 miles northwest of Phoenix, is anxious eral Phoenix fans are giving her every assistance. Phoenix will continue to have the "Solons" and "Maroons' and Mesa will have her usual lineup. It has been suggested that the receipts he pooled each week and distributed 60 percent to the dinning teams and 40 percent to the losers.

story; one that will make it popular with all kinds of people. We dare commend it as a desirable special offering. The 'Crow' is a tramp, son of a rich man. He had been disinherited for drunkenness, but his father, on his deathbed, has relented and the sweetheart of the heroine, the 'Crow's' foster sister, goes out as a hobo to find him, followed by a detective in the employ of the rich man's lawyer, who doesn't want the son forgiven. The love story here is secondary to the tramp story, which is a novel and pleasing hit of romance."

"TAPPED WIRES" AT BIJOU TODAY This gripping two-part feature is an Essanay production that is a live an Essanay production that is a live one from start to finish and an upto-date dramatic sensation. An enormous lot of action has been pressed into these films and there is not a slow moment during the entire play. The picture appeals to the multitudes because the story deals with incidents, humorous, sympathetic and strenuous, that occur in our everyday life. There are no overstraining effects—just showing up nature with the good and the bad. To make the program an all around good one we will show two good Kalem comedies entitled, "Wanted a Plumber" and "Too Many Cops." Both will make you laugh whether you feel in the mood or not. James Jeffries, Jack Jeffries and Barney Oldfield are shown in "Too Many Cops."—Advertisement.

AT THE PRINCESS THEATER, Something especially good will given at the Princess theater today. startling, thrilling and sensational dra-ma, entitled, "Held for Ransom," in two reels. This incident deals with the theft of a beautiful girl, carried to the mountains by her lover and then offered her freedom. Her preference causes her to remain with her lover. It causes her to remain with her lover. It is full of incident, and intensely interesting. In addition to this, there is given one of the most laughable comedies out, entitled, "Murphy's I. O. U" You will be highly entertained with the bill today. The Princess is cozy and convenient, and the pictures are clear and sharply defined. Best of treatment. "THANHOUSER" FEATURE TODAY.

The "Ward of the King," a Thanhouser offering in two reels, will be shown at the Grecian today. Miss Flo LaBadie and James Cruze are featured in this beautiful picture. The story begins with many carefully devised and beautiful scenes at the French court in about the time of Louis XIV. The costuming is gorgeous, the experiences on the sea are very exciting and the adventures of the ward, who escapes with her lover, are very thrilling and realistic. The whole picture is of the usual high class Thanhouser standard. Don't miss it—Advertisement.
